

Working Together

At Hart Shaw, we offer a bespoke service to fellow professionals whose clients may be experiencing financial difficulties.

We will work closely with you to offer independent advice and develop practical solutions to help underperforming businesses survive and prosper.

Helping you help your clients

Our specialist expertise is available to accountants and other professionals, helping you to help your clients.

We understand that you want to protect and preserve your client relationships therefore we can either work in the background, with you presenting the advice to your client, or we can work alongside you providing advice to your client. It is your choice.

The best possible advice for your clients

Our highly qualified experts have many years experience so you know your clients will get the best possible advice.

We provide a comprehensive, reliable service at highly competitive, local rates so you can rest assured your clients are receiving value for money.

Available options

There are many options available to struggling businesses prior to even thinking about a formal Insolvency. Hart Shaw will explore all these options with the aim of preserving the business in one form or another.

It is vitally important to seek advice sooner rather than later as this will increase the options available to the business.

Limited companies can consider:

- Turnaround & Recovery
- Company Voluntary Arrangements
- Administration
- Creditors Voluntary Liquidation

Benefits to you

Our service is geared to helping you preserve and develop your client relationships.

Hart Shaw relies on recommendations from fellow professionals. Our reputation and your satisfaction with the conduct of our service is paramount to us.

Working together we can help limit your bad debts and wherever possible we will refer accountancy work back to you during any formal procedures.

Benefits to your client

Your client is in safe hands. Hart Shaw will explore all the available options to ensure the immediate survival of the business.

We understand the difficult nature of coming to terms with financial difficulties and we pride ourselves in being approachable and understanding.

Our service is discreet and confidential.

Our specialist services

Business Recovery & Insolvency

Any business in trouble MUST seek professional advice sooner rather than later. If it is your client, you face losing unpaid fees and any work in progress if they go under, so it makes sense to tap into our portfolio of specialist business recovery services.

The primary aim is always to get your clients back on their feet as this will preserve your relationship.

Tax Advisory

The past decade has seen substantial changes in tax legislation and practice. Now more than ever, advisers are being sued by their clients.

This is why many general practitioners are turning to specialist tax advisers such as Hart Shaw.

Our dedicated team can help you with all aspects of tax planning including corporate tax, personal income tax and capital taxes, including inheritance tax and trusts.

Corporate Finance

Any acquisition or disposal, flotation or refinancing involves significant extra work for you, and your clients. It can be a very stressful time and having the support of our specialists in these areas really can make the difference.

We offer specialist advice for every size and type of business, having worked on transactions valued from £50,000 to £50 million.
